

The "do not call registry" should not allow for any exceptions. I dislike being interrupted by political pollsters, survey takers, and charities just as much as I do telemarketers. All organizations profit or non-profit should not be allowed to "cold call" my house.

I pay for the telephone in my house. No one should have the right to tie up my line, and my time unless I invite them to do so.